Gentlemen '

Thanking you for your kind order of the 17th.inst., I beg to hand you enclosed the ordered coins, that had not yet been sold at the receipt of your order.

Having given up my banking connection I would be obliged to you for sending remittance not in cheques on an american bank; perhaps you' ll pay in the amount at your postal office.

Are you also collecting paper money of the 18th.century of your ~~land~~ country ?

Yours very truly,

MAX KIEHN

Dear Sir:

Your coins arrived about two weeks ago, but acknowledgement was not made as the person who ordered the coins was absent. We are keeping all of them, and as per your request, are sending you a postoffice money order for $13.80 which is the nearest we can figure to the amount of your bill.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of December 14th at hand, enclosing coins ordered. We are deducting four marks, the price of Lot. 439, which on cleaning we discovered was a counterfeit. This we are returning to you. We have directed our bank to send you a check for Rm. 13.55 and you should receive this shortly.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
